RE: Access to Public Records Request – Wyatt Emails for Rescheduled Meeting

Dear Mr. Neiss:

This firm serves as legal counsel to the Central Falls Detention Facility Corporation (“CFDFC”). This letter will serve as the response to your Access to Public Records Act (the “Act”) request dated and received September 11, 2019. In your request you asked for the following information:

1. Copies of any email communications and their corresponding attachments with Albert Gardner, Wil Arboleda, Joseph Gonsalves, Agostinho Silva, Christopher Hunter, or Daniel Martin from September 9, 2019 to September 11, 2019 that include any of the non-case sensitive terms: “protester”, “jews”, “jewish”, “quickly as possible”, [and] “friday night”.

The intent of the Access to Public Records Act is found in Rhode Island General Laws which states:

- 38-2-1. Purpose – The public’s right to access to public records and the individual’s right to dignity and privacy are both recognized to be principles of the utmost importance in a free society. The purpose of this chapter is to facilitate public access to public records. It is also the intent of this chapter to protect from disclosure information about particular individuals maintained in the files of public bodies when disclosure would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

The CFDFC has identified the enclosed documents as responsive to your request and subject to disclosure pursuant to the Act. Please be advised that Albert Gardner and Joseph Gonsalves are no longer members of the Board of the CFDFC, and thus, the CFDFC does not maintain or have access to communications to or from those individuals. Additionally, please be advised that one document has been withheld on the basis that it is attorney client privileged, and thus, is not subject to disclosure pursuant to § 38-2-2(4)(A)(I)(a).

You may appeal this decision in accordance with Rhode Island General Laws § 38-2-8.

Very truly yours,

Patrick J. McBurney

Meeting rescheduled, complaints of antisemitism

The Wyatt Board meeting is now scheduled for Friday evening, and I'm already hearing complaints that this was done intentionally, because it is well known that much of the opposition the Board is likely to face is Jewish.

Was the meeting scheduled at this time to limit Jewish opposition?

This is a serious question, by the way, not trolling.

Steve

Thanks.

Aaron Regunberg notes the meeting now coincides with Shabbat, the Jewish day of rest and peace that begins just before sundown on Fridays. Any plans to change that date given that the main opponents are a Jewish activist group?

This Monday the board of the Wyatt Detention Facility is meeting, and - according to their filed meeting agenda - the Wyatt's investors will be pushing for a vote on a new contract. We can't know for sure (because nothing about this process is transparent), but it seems likely they are taking this action to legally double down on their agreement with ICE.

We can't let business as usual continue at the Wyatt. Join us at the Wyatt Detention Facility Training Building (935 High Street, Central Falls) to fight back and make sure the Wyatt board and investors know that when we say Never Again, we mean it.

MORE INFO

The Wyatt is a for-profit prison currently serving as an ICE detention facility. On August 13, #JewsAgainstICE, immigrants, and allies presented demands to the warden of the Wyatt Detention Facility. Representatives from the facility refused to meet, and later that night correctional officers from the Wyatt Detention Facility attacked our group while we were peacefully protesting outside the facility. Most of the correctional officers, including those who pepper sprayed peaceful protesters, are still working inside the facility.

Later last month, a person being detained at the Wyatt died after spending three days in the Rhode Island

Hospital. This is happening right here in Rhode Island. It's our responsibility to say loud and clear:
